Attention Parents:

Does your child have a food allergy, learning disability, or other circumstance that might affect class participation? Our goal is to be sensitive to the needs of every child enrolled in religious education. Please list any special needs. We also encourage you to also speak to your child's teacher directly concerning these needs.

I realize that RE is just one part of my child's formation in Christ. I know that family spirituality is the most important element in my child's spiritual development. I will make it a priority to attend weekly Mass and try to pray and share faith as a family.
